

Language courses

International postgraduate programmes are conducted in English, and occasionally in both French and English.

The languages used out of class campuses are French or English. Therefore, a sound knowledge of one of these two languages is advised.

The ESC Lille language department offers several courses in French for international students upon their arrival and throughout their training.

French students take classes to prepare international English tests: TOEFL, TOEIC...